

More media consolidation does not serve the public interest. It does not belong in a democracy.